

8th Annual Teen Media Contest (2003)

Six New Jersey high school students are the winners of the New Jersey Department of Human Services (DHS) Statewide Teen Media Contest. The contest, in its eighth year, helps the New Jersey Department of Human Services, Division of Family Development, reinforce its mission to instill a sense of parental responsibility in New Jersey's youth.

The 2003 theme of the Teen Media Contest was, "Securing Your Child's Future." The art contest, which was open to all New Jersey high school students, included two categories: computer generated and original hand-drawn artwork.

First Place in the Computer Generated Category
Keith McPherson of Ocean Township High School

This could be the child you left

This could be your child as an adult and he knows nothing about you.

This could be your child learning to grow up without you

Help secure your child's future, be responsible and be a part of their life. You won't regret it.
